Alleluia.

A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people Alleluia.

Entrance Antiphon:
The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; whom should I dread? When those who do evil draw near, they stumble and fall. Alleluia.

Responsorial Psalm:
I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Gospel Acclamat
I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. Alleluia.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; whom should I dread? When those who do evil draw near, they stumble and fall. Alleluia.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Fall. Alleluia.

This Weekend Readings: Tenth Sunday in Ord. Times, Year C

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Young man, I say to you, arise.

Jesus went to a town called Nain, accompanied by his disciples and a great number of people. When he was near the gate of the town it happened that a dead man was being carried out for burial, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a considerable number of the townspeople were with her. When the Lord saw her he felt sorry for her. 'Do not cry,' he said. Then he went up and put his hand on the bier and the bearers stood still, and he said, 'Young man, I tell you to get up.' And the dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Everyone was filled with awe and praised God, saying, 'A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people.' And this opinion of him spread throughout Judaea and all over the countryside.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Tenth Sunday in Ord. Times, Year C:

- Widow of Nain
  Sometimes we say to people “don’t cry” because we feel uncomfortable with the pain they are expressing through their tears. However in this beautiful story, Jesus says to the widow whose son has died “do not cry”, and then Jesus gave her reason to dry her tears by bringing the young man back to life. We enjoy this beautiful story with a happy ending but it leaves me wondering what can we take into our everyday life by bringing the young man back to life.

  We enjoy this beautiful story with a happy ending but it leaves me wondering what can we take into our everyday life by bringing the young man back to life. Sometimes we say to people don’t cry because we feel uncomfortable with the pain we feel the pain of others we show them we care, and if we are able to ease their pain we do.
