Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia! God first loved us and sent his Son to take away our sins.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:
Lord, forgive the wrong I have done.

RESPONSE:
O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you; be my help. Do not abandon or forsake me, O God, my Saviour! Alleluia.

This Weekend Readings: Eleventh Sunday in Ord. Times, Year C
1st Reading: 2 Samuel 12:7-10,13
2nd Reading: Galatians 2:16,19-21
Gospel: Luke 7:36-8-3

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:
Her many sins were forgiven her, because she has shown great love.

One of the Pharisees invited Jesus to a meal. When he arrived at the Pharisee’s house and took his place at table, a woman came in, who had a bad name in the town. She had heard he was dining with the Pharisee, and had brought with her an alabaster jar of ointment. She waited behind him at his feet, weeping, and her tears fell on his feet, and she wiped them away with her hair; then she covered his feet with kisses and anointed them with the ointment.

When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, ‘If this man were a prophet, he would know who this woman is that is touching him and what a bad name she has.’ Then Jesus took him up and said, ‘Simon, I have something to say to you.’ ‘Speak, Master,’ was the reply. There was once a creditor who had two men in his debt; one owed him five hundred denarii, the other fifty. They were unable to pay, so he pardoned them both. Which of them will love him more?’ ‘The one who was pardoned more, I suppose,’ answered Simon. Simon said, ‘You are right.’

Then he turned to the woman. ‘Simon,’ he said, ‘you see this woman? I came into your house, and you poured no water over my feet, but she has poured out her tears over my feet and wiped them away with her hair. You gave me no kiss, but she has been covering my feet with kisses ever since I came in. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. For this reason I tell you that her sins, her many sins, must have been forgiven her, or she would not have shown such great love. It is the man who is forgiven little who shows little love.’ Then he said to her, ‘Your sins are forgiven.’ Those who were with him at table began to say to themselves, ‘Who is this man, that he says to sinners, “Your sins are forgiven”?’

Now at this he made his way through towns and villages, preaching, and proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom of God. With him went the Twelve, as well as certain women who had been cured of evil spirits and ailments: Mary summaried the Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, Joanna the wife of Herod’s steward Chuza, Susanna, and several others who provided for them out of their own resources.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Twelfth Sunday In Ord. Times, Year C
1st Reading: Zechariah 12:10-11;13:1
2nd Reading: Galatians 3:26-29
Eleventh Sunday in Ord. Times, Year C

You gave me no kiss…. it is the one who is forgiven little who shows little love.

Jesus is invited to dinner by Simon yet he is not welcomed warmly by his host. Many times I go through the process of meeting my family and friends I offer welcome…serve tea yet sometimes I know I am like Simon. I do what is appropriate but I don’t show the gratitude shown to Jesus by the “sinful” woman in the Gospel. So this Gospel invites me to be more expressive to my immediate family who have forgiven me so often in the past. Does this Gospel touch you in any way?
