Thirteenth Sunday

In the Gospel Jesus reaches out to those who are suffering. This is close to the message of Pope Francis.

In 1224 Saint Francis wrote a hymn praising God for creation, we know it in English as All Creatures of our God and King. Pope Francis used the words Laudate Sii (Praise Be) from this hymn as the title for his letter, the sub-title is “on care for our common home” Pope Francis reminds us that the earth’s resources belong to the poor as well as to the rich, and we must preserve the earth so that generations yet to be born inherit our earth in good condition. Pope Francis says “we are created in God’s image and given dominion over the earth”, but this does not give us the right to absolute dominion over other creatures. He asks us to care for the environment so other creatures are not driven to extinction. Can you see ways to be more caring of the earth?
