This Weekend Readings: THE 14TH SUNDAY IN ORD.TIMES YR B
1st Reading: Ezekiel 2:2-5  2nd Reading: 2 Corin. 12:7-10
Gospel: Mark 6:1-6

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark:

A prophet is despised only in his own country.

Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the Sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, ‘Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joseph and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?’ And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, ‘A prophet is only despised in his own country among his own relations and in his own house’; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Fourteenth Sunday Ordinary Time, year B.

Read this Gospel to yourself, the locals know Jesus and where he fits in the family. Those who have been in Holy Child community for ages have the same confidence in speaking about someone from here. So Jesus is the local boy, one of them, and they confidently ask “where did the man get all this wisdom? This is the carpenter surely.” Those who heard Jesus in his home town synagogue are amazed with what he said yet they would not accept him. “He cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them”. Jesus was rejected at the synagogue in his own home town, we understand this, I am sure you also have been rejected by those who know you. I am sure Jesus was hurt by this rejection yet he still cured people. The challenge to me is that when I feel rejected I must continue to do good as Jesus did. I must try not to be mean to people simply because they cannot accept me.
