Fifteenth Sunday Of the Ordinary Time, Year B
In today’s Gospel Jesus sends out the Twelve, his instructions to them are wonderfully informative for us. He sends them in pairs so that they feel supported as they do Jesus’ work. He sends them with sandals and a staff but without money or a spare tunic, (obviously not in a Melbourne winter). They set off to preach repentance: they were not sent to spread the Good News, they did not proclaim the Kingdom. They preached the same message John the Baptist preached. Repentance means; turn from you past ways, change your old habits; begin afresh. This too is our call, I constantly need to repent and renew my commitment as the twelve did. So far I haven’t cast out many devils but I visit the sick and bring new life to those feeling down. I think this is what the twelve did. How is your repentance going?

Sea Sunday - 12 July 2015
The theme this year “The Stella Maris Global Family”. Seafarers are confronted with a number of issue not only confined to transporting goods to Australia and exporting goods to rest of the world. Seafarers are important for our economy. They are not a number, nor a commodity. They are an important part of Australia competing in the global market. They are also part of our global parish. Remember them in a special way this weekend.

Pope Francis’ message from Bolivia.
In his address to a million in Bolivia, the Holy Father said, “As a guest and a pilgrim, I have come to confirm the faith of those who believe in the Risen Christ, so that, during our pilgrimage on earth, we believers may be witnesses of his love, leaven for a better world and co-operators in the building of a more just and fraternal society.”

Don’t Mess with Marriage. (copies are available in our church foyer)
‘Don’t Mess with Marriage’ is the title of a Pastoral Letter from the Australian Bishops Conference, released on 28 May 2015. It explains the meaning of marriage enshrined in our laws from a religious perspective.’ Australian political leaders are considering whether to define marriage in law to recognize same-sex unions as civil marriages. Archbishop Porteous of Hobart said, ‘We are being asked to abandon the plan of God for marriage and family, and this would be a disastrous step to take.’
