A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark:

They were as sheep without a shepherd.

The apostles re-joined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, ‘You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while’; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Sixteenth Sunday

“You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while” Imagine your boss at work saying this to you on a Monday morning; wow you would sign on for life with that company. You might think “this is a wonderfully life giving way of running an office.” After a few hours rest you could return to your work and do it more efficiently.

In our Gospel Jesus suggested a time of peace for his apostles but Jesus got no rest himself because the people needed him. Yes the apostles needed rest but the people craved to hear the words of Jesus and this is what we need too.

What great things did Jesus say earlier that encouraged people hurry by foot to the “quiet place Jesus sought”?

What words of Jesus run through your mind?

What words of healing do you need at the moment?
