A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:
Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst.
When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into boats and crossed to Capernaum to look for Jesus. When they found him on the other side, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered: 'I tell you most solemnly, you are not looking for me because you have seen the signs but because you had all the bread you wanted to eat. Do not work for food that cannot last, but work for food that endures to eternal life, the kind of food the Son of Man is offering you, for on him the Father, God himself, has set his seal.' Then they said to him, 'What must we do if we are to do the works that God wants?' Jesus gave them this answer, 'This is working for God: you must believe in the one he has sent.' So they said, 'What sign will you give to show us that we should believe in you? What work will you do? Our fathers had manna to eat in the desert; as scripture says: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'
Jesus answered: 'I tell you solemnly, it was not Moses who gave you bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the bread from heaven, the true bread; for the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' 'Sir,' they said 'give us that bread always.' Jesus answered: 'I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Eighteenth Sunday

In the middle of the Gospel people ask “what must we do to perform the works of God?” (NRSV) This is a vital question for us all; it is answered below.

Towards the end of this Gospel Jesus speaks of:

“the bread of God, is that which comes down from heaven, and gives life to the world.” ……I am the bread of life.”

Yes, Jesus gives life to the world but he does not act alone, he acts through us, we are the body of Christ, we are the ones who must give this God-life to the world, We are the ones who must have inner joy, so that others feel more alive when they are with us. Do you feel this joy? Do you share life and joy with others?
