Entrance Antiphon:
Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever. Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you. Alleluia!

Responsorial Psalm:
Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.
Các bạn hãy nếm thử và hãy nhìn thấy, cho biết Chúa thiện hảo như nào.

Gospel Acclamation:
Alleluia. Alleluia. I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

This Weekend Readings: THE 19th SUNDAY IN ORD. TIMES YR B

1st Reading: 1Kings 19:4-8 2nd Reading: Ephesians 4:30-5:2  Gospel: John 6:41-51

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:
I am the living bread come down from heaven.
The Jews were complaining to each other about Jesus, because he had said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' ‘Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph’ they said. ‘We know his father and mother. How can he now say, “I have come down from heaven”? Jesus said in reply, ‘Stop complaining to each other. No one can come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me, and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets: They will all be taught by God, and to hear the teaching of the Father, and learn from it, is to come to me. Not that anybody has seen the Father, except the one who comes from God: he has seen the Father. I tell you most solemnly, everybody who believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and they are dead; but this is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that a man may eat it and not die. I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.’

Next Weekend’s Readings:
20th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B
1st Reading: Proverbs 9:1-6 2nd Reading: Ephesians 5:15-20  Gospel: John 6:51-58
Nineteenth Sunday

In the Gospel today Jesus says “I am the bread of Life”. This astounding statement caused an argument amongst the Jews at the time and it has caused many disagreements in the years since then. “I am the bread of life” tells us that Jesus gives us life, we live because of him. We might exist without him but with him there is fullness of life. Do we live with fullness of life? Children are receiving Eucharist for the first time later this month and we are challenged to be an example for them; challenged to live our Eucharist, to be Christ for others. The final line of the Gospel says “…the bread I shall give is my flesh for the life of the world”. We must use this bread (this communion with Jesus) to give life to the world. It is not for us to keep but for us to share.
