The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:
I have come not to give peace, but discord.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I have come to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were blazing already! There is a baptism I must still receive, and how great is my distress till it is over!

'Do you suppose that I am here to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. For from now on a household of five will be divided: three against two and two against three; the father divided against the son, son against father, mother against daughter, daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.'

SUNDAY in Ord. TIMES, YEAR C

The Gospel says Jesus message is a blazing fire. Year in year out it is hard to feel a blazing fire of Christian commitment but perhaps today, the enthusiasm and joy of the children will help us to remember the fire that burnt in us on special occasions. If we can remember the inner warmth and our joy at our First Eucharist then perhaps we can all glow with some of that warmth and joy today as we become more fully a Eucharistic community.
