This Weekend Readings: Second Sunday in Lent Year B
1st Reading: Genesis 22:1-2,9-13,15-18 2nd Reading: Romans 8:31-34 Gospel: Mark 9:2-10

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark:
This is my Son, the beloved; listen to him.
Jesus took with him Peter and James and John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone by themselves. There in their presence he was transfigured: his clothes became dazzlingly white, whiter than any earthly bleacher could make them. Elijah appeared to them with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus. Then Peter spoke to Jesus. ‘Rabbi,’ he said ‘it is wonderful for us to be here; so let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.’ He did not know what to say; they were so frightened. And a cloud came, covering them in shadow; and there came a voice from the cloud, ‘This is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him.’ Then suddenly, when they looked round, they saw no one with them any more but only Jesus.

As they came down the mountain he warned them to tell no one what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. They observed the warning faithfully, though among themselves they discussed what ‘rising from the dead’ could mean.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
Second Sunday in Lent
I went to see the film Wild; a young woman lost her mother to cancer and became very troubled. After a depressing time with drugs she set out alone to walk 1000 miles along The Pacific Crest Trail. The pain, the blisters and her isolation in the mountains led her to discover something new about her own strength and about what she loved in life. She was able to love herself again and see her painful past as one step in forming who she had become. In the Gospel, Peter, James and John were able to view Jesus in new light when they were with him on the mountain. Mountains have often been climbed by people trying to feel close to God. This lent I invite you to spend some time alone, (even if it is not on a mountain) you may find your inner strength and perhaps see yourself in new light.
