Thirteenth Sunday
Sixteen of our parish community are visiting Jerusalem, we who love them are aware of political tensions and violence erupting there. For Holy Child people, tension like this may be a new experience, but for those of Jerusalem it has been going on for thousands of years. Jesus grew up amidst racial tensions and deep bigotry. One example is in the Gospel today. The blind man is disregarded by the followers of Jesus; many scolded Bartimaeus and told him to be quiet. He was considered to be a sinner, punished by blindness. Jesus says “call him here” immediately the crowd forget their bigotry and encourage Bartimaeus to go to Jesus. Here is the miracle, the crowd has changed because of three words. May we always be the ones to include others not exclude them by telling them to be quiet.

Book of Remembrance
November is a special month when we remember and pray for all those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. Laudato Si’: On the Care of Our Common Home
Pope Francis’ Encyclical Laudato Si’: On the Care for Our Common Home is a call for global action as well as an appeal for deep inner conversion. He points to numerous ways world organisations, nations and communities must move forward and the way individuals -- believers and people of good will -- should see, think, feel and act.

"For genuine change, put the common good first. Special interests manipulate information, offer superficial rhetoric, sporadic acts of philanthropy and perfunctory expressions of concern."

(Par 54)
