This Weekend Readings: ALL SAINTS, YEAR B

1st Reading: Revelation 7:2-4,9-14
2nd Reading: 1 John 3:1-3
Gospel: Mathew 5:1-12

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mathew: This is the first commandment, and the second is similar to it.

One of the scribes came up to Jesus and put a question to him, ‘Which is the first of all the commandments?’ Jesus replied, ‘This is the first: Listen, Israel, the Lord our God is the one Lord, and you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: You must love your neighbour as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.’ The scribe said to him, ‘Well spoken, master; what you have said is true: that he is one and there is no other. To love with all your heart, with all your understanding and strength and to love your neighbour as yourself, this is far more important than any holocaust or sacrifice.’ Jesus, seeing how wisely he had spoken said, ‘You are not far from the kingdom of God.’ And after that no one dared to question him any more. The Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Thirtieth Sunday

As we think of those whom we love who have passed on, we listen to the words of this Gospel and wonder who are the poor in spirit?

In the book of Isaiah, we read: He sent me to bring Good news to the poor. And... my eyes are drawn to the man of humbled and contrite spirit who trembles at my word...When today's gospel says Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven, we live this way. I am sure our loved ones are part of the kingdom too.
