This Weekend Readings: 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Times, YEAR B
1st Reading: 1 Kings 17:10-16 2nd Reading: Hebrews 9:24-28 Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

In his teaching Jesus said, ‘Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.’

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny.

Then he called his disciples and said to them, ‘I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.’

The Gospel of the Lord. Thanks be to God.
Thirty-Second Sunday

Giving and Receiving Gifts

In November we remember those who have died, perhaps you now treasure something that was given to you by a family member who has since died. In the Gospel Jesus spoke of the Scribes who walk about in long robes and take the front seats in the synagogues, saying lengthy prayers. Jesus said, they are the same ones who rip off the poor and the widows. We know exactly what he was talking about because two thousand years later we still have people who are insincere, people who wish to be seen doing something important. In contrast the widow took what she needed in her life and shared it with others. If we follow her example we will truly feel that there is joy in giving.
