Entrance Antiphon:
The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place. Alleluia.

Responsorial Psalm:
The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice. Chúa ngự đến xét xử muốn dân theo lề công bình.

Gospel Acclamation:
Alleluia, alleluia! Lift up you heads and see; your redemption is near at hand. Alleluia.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Your endurance will win you your life.

When some were talking about the Temple, remarking how it was adorned with fine stonework and votive offerings, Jesus said, ‘All these things you are staring at now - the time will come when not a single stone will be left on another: everything will be destroyed.’ And they put to him this question: ‘Master,’ they said ‘when will this happen, then, and what sign will there be that this is about to take place?’

‘Take care not to be deceived,’ he said ‘because many will come using my name and saying, “I am he” and, “The time is near at hand.” Refuse to join them. And when you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened, for this is something that must happen but the end is not so soon.’ Then he said to them, ‘Nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes and plagues and famines here and there; there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

But before all this happens, men will seize you and persecute you; they will hand you over to the synagogues and to imprisonment, and bring you before kings and governors because of my name - and that will be your opportunity to bear witness. Keep this carefully in mind: you are not to prepare your defence, because I myself shall give you an eloquence and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relations and friends; and some of you will be put to death. You will be hated by all men on account of my name, but not a hair of your head will be lost. Your endurance will win you your lives.’

Christmas Luncheon Planning Group
It's that time of year again! We need volunteers to help us make this possible. So, if you have some time and would like to be part of this Event, please contact Paul Gleeson/Parish Office on 9302 3376. It is very rewarding to make a difference to those people who have no family to spend and share Christmas Day with them. Many of them live alone. Spread the Christmas cheer. To any Parishioner who may be alone on Christmas Day, or if you know of any person/s who may be alone on the Day, please inform Paul/Parish Office.

For considering a Donation

Thank You!!

B ook of Remembrance
November is a Special month when we remember and pray for all those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. Those who have still not included the names of their dearly departed, please do so in our Book of Remembrance.

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ord. Times, Year C
Jesus said, “these things you are staring at now will be destroyed, not a stone will be left upon a stone” Jesus words are used to tell us that the Jewish Temple which they loved would be destroyed by the Romans. Jesus words also remind us that all things change. Soon the flowers that look so fresh and new in Spring will wither in summer's heat and the new car that is so shiny and wonderful will be a rusty old heap. Soon this change and decay, only God's love for us doesn't deteriorate.
