This Weekend Readings: Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Year C

1st Reading: Samuel 5:1-3

2nd Reading: Col. 1:12-20

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Lord remember me when you come into your kingdom. (Luke 23:42)

The people stayed before the cross watching Jesus. As for the leaders, they jeered at him. 'He saved others,' they said 'let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.' The soldiers mocked him too, and when they approached to offer him vinegar they said, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself.' Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals hanging there abused him. 'Are you not the Christ?' he said. 'Save yourself and us as well.' But the other spoke up and rebuked him. 'Have you no fear of God at all?' he said, 'You got the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it: we

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

What sort of Kingdom does Christ have ???

In the Preface of the Mass today we read. A kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace. Yet this wonderful Kingdom depends upon us: if we do not speak the truth, if we do not live in holiness, if we do not act justly, if we do not love, others will not experience Christ. We are not just members of Christ’s Kingdom we are not like rate payers in Christ’s empire. We are essential to the life and existence of the Kingdom of Christ.
