A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

Destroy this sanctuary, and in three days I will raise it up.

Just before the Jewish Passover Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and pigeons, and the money changers sitting at their counters there. Making a whip out of some cord, he drove them all out of the Temple, cattle and sheep as well, scattered the money-changers’ coins, knocked their tables over and said to the pigeon-sellers, ‘Take all this out of here and stop turning my Father’s house into a market.’ Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: Zeal for your house will devour me. The Jews intervened and said, ‘What sign can you show us to justify what you have done?’ Jesus answered, ‘Destroy this sanctuary, and in three days I will raise it up.’ The Jews replied, ‘It has taken forty-six years to build this sanctuary: are you going to raise it up in three days?’ But he was speaking of the sanctuary that was his body, and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the words he had said. During his stay in Jerusalem for the Passover many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he gave, but Jesus knew them all and did not trust himself to them; he never needed evidence about any man; he could tell what a man had in himself.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
Third Sunday in Lent

The Jews asked, “What sign can you show us that will justify what you have done?”

Jesus answers the question and he compares the Temple which traditionally brought God’s presence to the people, with the ‘sanctuary of his body’ which is the new way that God is present among the people. This is an example of a dialogue that teaches us.

Often in John’s Gospel people ask questions and Jesus answers contain the theology. John’s Gospel was written later than the other Gospels and there had been more time for the early Christians to work out how God’s message had come to them. Now two thousand years later we are still reading these stories and trying to understand how God is present in our world. These stories are very old yet with our help they come alive: let us respect God’s presence in each person. We are made in the image and likeness of God.

Jesus drove the money changers out of the temple.

Money in the temple is an image of greed that creeps into our lives. Greed may choke our generosity and stifle the presence of God (love and generosity) in each of us. Be generous this Lent.
