Entrance Antiphon:
Save us, O Lord our God! And gather us from the nations, to give thanks to your holy name, and make it our glory to praise you.

Responsorial Psalm:
I will sing your salvation.

Gospel Acclamation:
Alleluia, Alleluia, The Lord send me to bring Good News to the poor and freedom prisoners. Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:
Jesus, like Elijah and Elisha, was not sent only to the Jews. Jesus began to speak in the synagogue, 'This text is being fulfilled today even as you listen.' And he won the approval of all, and they were astonished by the gracious words that came from his lips. They said, 'This is Joseph's son surely?' But he replied, 'No doubt you will quote me the saying, “Physician, heal yourself” and tell me, “We have heard all that happened in Capernaum, do the same here in your own countryside.” And he went on, 'I tell you solemnly, no prophet is ever accepted in his own country. 'There were many widows in Israel, I can assure you, in Elijah's day, when heaven remained shut for three years and six months and a great famine raged throughout the land, but Elijah was not sent to any one of these: he was sent to the widow at Zarephath, a Sidonian town. And in the prophet Elisha's time there were many lepers in Israel, but none of these was cured, except the Syrian, Naaman.' When they heard this everyone in the synagogue was enraged. They sprang to their feet and hustled him out of the town; and they took him up to the brow of the hill their town was built on, intending to throw him down the cliff, but he slipped through the crowd and walked away.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Fourth Sunday In Ord. Times

In this Gospel Sunday Jesus preaches in the Synagogue in his home town. He knows the Old Testament stories well and he uses them to point out that non-Jews are rewarded by God for being committed authentic people. Jesus 'won the approval of all' but the praise didn’t last long, the crowd became critical of Jesus when they realized he was merely the son of a carpenter, and they tried to throw him off a cliff.

Our experience as followers of Christ may be similar. Yes there are times when we are praised for being generous and caring but there will be times when we are laughed at for being committed to others. Our challenge is to live what we believe is right; we should listen to the crowd because if many people are convinced of something it is worth valuing, but each of us must live by what is authentic not by what happens to be popular: flavour of the month.

Welcome back. A Happy New Year one and all. We hope you had a restful and happy season. A special Thank You to the Jubilee Committee for all the planning and organising in all the Events during our Jubilee Year.
