Entrance Antiphon:
Save us, O Lord our God! And gather us from the nations, to give thanks to your holy name, and make it our glory to praise you.

Responsorial Psalm:
If today you hear his voice, harden not your heart.
Ngay hôm nay, ước gì anh em nghe tiếng Chúa! Người phán:Các ngươi chớ cứng lòng.

Gospel Acclamation:
Alleluia! Alleluia! The people in darkness have seen a great light; a radiant dawn shines on those lost in death. Alleluia.

This Weekend Readings: Year B Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Times
1st Reading: Deut.18:15-20 2nd Reading: 1 Corin.7:32-35 Gospel: Mark 1:21-28

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark:
Jesus and his followers went as far as Capernaum, and as soon as the Sabbath came Jesus went to the synagogue and began to teach. And his teaching made a deep impression on them because, unlike the scribes, he taught them with authority.

In their synagogue just then there was a man possessed by an unclean spirit, and it shouted, ‘What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God.’ But Jesus said sharply, ‘Be quiet! Come out of him!’ The unclean spirit threw the man into convulsions and with a loud cry went out of him. The people were so astonished that they started asking each other what it all meant. ‘Here is a teaching that is new’ they said ‘and with authority behind it: he gives orders even to unclean spirits and they obey him.’ And his reputation rapidly spread everywhere, through all the surrounding Galilean countryside.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.
Fourth Sunday
This gospel is ten stories in one. Jesus seems hyperactive. He cures Simon's mother in law, he cures others with disease, he drives out devils, he stops the devils talking, but in the midst of all this activity, Jesus gets up before dawn to pray in a lonely place. This line about the lonely place is in such contrast with the action packed lines before it, we notice the contrast and listen attentively for the message. Jesus and all of us need time to be alone; we need time to be comfortable with ourselves. Over the centuries people in all religions have valued meditation and quiet prayer time, I believe it is most important for me too, but I find it difficult to turn my phone off, I find it difficult not to be doing something that has visible results.

Welcome back
A Happy New Year to all of you, especially the ones who have been away. Hope you had a well earned holiday. Our Golden Jubilee Year has begun and there are a number of events planned. On Sunday, 15th February at 11.00 am, we have the Opening Mass at Dallas. We invite all of you, and if you can spread the word to other parishioners who no longer live in the Parish, even better. All other events are listed on the Card that was handed over on New Year's Day. They are still available in the Foyer. Take one. Keep the days free to be part of the Parish Jubilee Celebrations.

Our Parish has just turned 50. Happy Birthday to Holy Child Parish.
Half a Century of Parish's Life from 30 Jan. 1965 to 30 Jan. 2015. On January 30th 1965 Mass was celebrated at Dallas for the first time. Now 50 years later, we celebrate its Golden Jubilee. This is NOT 50 years of a building, but it is 50 years of a Community: OUR COMMUNITY.

Pilgrimage from Holy Child to Holy Land
Anyone still interested in joining the group, please contact Fr Leenus/Judy Cartwright. We need more people to make this pilgrimage worthwhile.
