The Gospel of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.
Fourth Sunday of Easter

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us by letting us be called God’s children. (From the second reading 1 Jn 3:1-2, and then below from today’s Gospel)

I am the good shepherd I know mine….And there are other sheep that are not of this fold. These I have to lead as well….

These two quotes are reminding us that every person from every culture or religion is a child of the Father and is loved by God, yes every person is nurtured by the Good Shepherd. Sometimes we forget that the Father’s love is lavished on millions of Buddhist and Hindu people of Asia, God’s love was richly bestowed on generations of Aboriginal people since the dream time. Our names are each carved in the palm of God’s hand. Is 49:16. What is different for Christians then? We have the gift of recognising God’s love; we are able to share that love, in thanks for what we have received.
