The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made. Alleluia.

We are his people, the sheep of his flock. Alleluia.
Ta là dân-tộc, là đoàn chiên Chúa chăn nuôi.

Gospel Acclamation:
Alleluia, alleluia! I am the good shepherd, says the Lord! I know my sheep, and mine know me. Alleluia.

Entrance Antiphon:
A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:
I give my sheep eternal life. Jesus said:
'The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice; I know them and they follow me. I give them eternal life; they will never be lost and no one will ever steal them from me. The Father who gave them to me is greater than anyone, and no one can steal from the Father. The Father and I are one.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Fourth Sunday of Easter
Syrian people seeking refuge in crowded Europe experience hunger and cold, probably soon the sun will scorch them. How they must long for the reassurance given in todays second reading and Gospel. He will spread his tent over them,.......they will never hunger or thirst again,........
neither the sun nor the scorching wind will ever plague them.... he will lead them to springs of water and wipe all tears from their eyes....No one can steal them....
We are called care for others in the name of the Good Shepherd. But how do we in Australia or Christians throughout Europe respond to this crisis? These refugees are the voice of God calling us to respond: our Vocation is to shepherd those in need. How?
