Gospel: Matthew 5:13-16

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew:
You are the light of the world.

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘You are the salt of the earth. But if salt becomes tasteless, what can make it salty again? It is good for nothing, and can only be thrown out to be trampled underfoot by men.

‘You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill-top cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.’

Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
Fifth Sunday in Ord. Times
The Gospel says to us “you are to be salt for the earth and light for the world”.
We are told: your light must shine before others. So I ask you: Do you light up the life of others?????, do others see your good works and give praise because of it??????? Well if I am honest I live up to this sometimes but not all the time. Just like you, I try to live the Gospel message, but I often fall short. If you would like others to do better then try praising them for what they have already achieved and see if they manage more next time. It works on me.
