Entrance Antiphon:
O come, let us worship God and bow low before the God who made us, for he is the Lord our God.

Responsorial Psalm:
Praise the Lord who heals the broken-hearted.
Hãy ca ngợi Chúa đi! Người chữa trị bao cõi lòng tan vỡ.

Gospel Acclamation:
Alleluia! Alleluia! He bore our sickness, and endured our suffering. Alleluia.

Next Weekend Readings: Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Times Year B
1st Reading: Leviticus 13:1-2,44-46  2nd Reading: 1 Corin.10-31,11:1  Gospel: Mark 1:40-45
Fifth Sunday
2000 years of Christianity 50 years of our Parish.
Do our beliefs and understandings move with the times?
In the second reading last week St Paul said to the people of Corinth, an unmarried person can devote him/her self to the Lord but a married person must devote them selves to their spouse. St Paul is saying your love for your husband limits your love for God.
Yet at every marriage ceremony the celebrant tells the bride and groom “your love for one another is a reminder of the love that God has for us; loving your partner and children is how you show the love of God in the world”.
Why is St Paul’s message so different? Well earlier in verse 25 Paul says, “I do not have a command from the Lord but give my own opinion…” Paul was aware he didn’t have all the answers. Also St Paul and people of his day believed that at any moment the world would end with God coming to judge every body who ever lived.
We know that the world didn’t end in Paul’s life, but in 2000 years 50 years of our Parish. Do our beliefs and understandings move with the times? We can answer this question in different ways. One way is to look at our beliefs and ideas within the context of the world of the time and place in which they were set down. Even if we can understand and interpret a passage of scripture in this way, can we move with the times?

Jubilee Opening Mass
On Sunday, 15 Feb. 2015, at Holy Child Church, Dallas at 11.00 a.m, with our new bishop Terry Curtin. Commissioning of our Parish Council Members and that of the School Staff also will take place during this Mass. Please come in festive clothing. Let’s open this Jubilee Year with bright colours and with much joy. Come in National Costume if possible.
