Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark:
This is my body. This is my blood.

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the passover?’ So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, ‘Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house in which he enters, ‘The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the passover with my disciples?’ He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.’ The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover.

And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. ‘Take it,’ he said ‘this is my body.’ Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, ‘This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.’

After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.
The Body & Blood of Jesus
The feast today is about Christ present to us in the bread we break and the wine we share. But also of Christ present in the way we live; we are the body of Christ. The readings for today are complicated and difficult for us to understand, people in Moses time used animal blood to prove that they were being sincere when they agreed on a deal. In the Exodus reading Moses sprinkles blood on the people to confirm the "covenant" that God made with them. In the gospel we hear the story of the Lord’s Supper and how Jesus said “this is my blood …….”, Jesus spoke of the “new wine” he would drink in the kingdom. Experts say new wine refers to the party atmosphere we will experience in the “kingdom”. The kingdom is in the future when Christ will be with us again. When we receive Christ in the form of bread we become part of the future kingdom, part of the new covenant.
