A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:
The Spirit of truth will guide you into all the truth.
Jesus said to his disciples:
When the Advocate comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who issues from the Father, he will be my witness. And you too will be witnesses, because you have been with me from the outset. ‘I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.’
The Gospel of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.
Pentecost Sunday
I often have information overload, when some well meaning person tells me so much detail about how to drive to a particular house....and I know will be lost. In the Gospel Jesus says “I have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.”. As Jesus taught them, the apostles felt over loaded with the message”.

In the Gospel Jesus says “I have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.”. As Jesus taught them, the apostles felt over loaded and lost so in this Gospel Jesus assures them the Holy Spirit will guide them. The Spirit is a sort of GPS but you don’t type in the address: you trust and you walk. In the first reading today Luke tells us about the apostles being filled with the Holy Spirit the mass reading stops there. If we read on, we find Peter leads the others out of the room and he begins to proclaim “the message”. Peter lost his fear he gained the courage and insight needed to lead the church. As you know the apostles died without finishing Jesus work so we are given the Holy Spirit we continue the work today.
