YEAR A Fourth Sunday in Lent

The family of God is inclusive... The man born blind went round telling everyone about Jesus, but Christians sometimes want to pick and choose who receives the Good News. Pope Francis reflects: the salvation which God offers, and the Church joyfully proclaims, is for everyone ... No one is saved by himself or herself, or by his or her own efforts. ... This people which God has chosen is called the Church. Jesus did not tell the apostles to form an exclusive and elite group ... To those who feel far from God and the Church, to all those who are fearful or indifferent, Pope Francis says this: the Lord, with great respect and love, is also calling you to be a part of his people! Being Church means being God’s people, in accordance with the great plan of his fatherly love ... It means proclaiming and bringing God's salvation into our world, which often goes astray and needs to be encouraged, given hope and strengthened on the way. The Church must be a place of mercy freely given, where everyone can feel welcomed, loved, forgiven & encouraged to live the good life of the Gospel.
