Entrance Antiphon:
Give me justice, O God, and plead my cause against a nation that is faithless. From the deceitful and cunning rescue me, for you, O God are my strength.

Responsorial Psalm:
With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

Lạy Chúa con thờ, muốn Lạy Chúa, Ngài nỡ lòng ruồng bỏ con sao?

Gospel Acclamation:
Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ! I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord; whoever believes in me will not die for ever. Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:
I am the resurrection and the life.

The sisters Martha and Mary sent this message to Jesus, ‘Lord, the man you love is ill.’ On receiving the message, Jesus said, ‘This sickness will end not in death but in God’s glory, and through it the Son of God will be glorified.’ Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus, yet when he heard that Lazarus was ill he stayed where he was for two more days before saying to the disciples, ‘Let us go to Judaea.’ On arriving, Jesus found that Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days already. When Martha heard that Jesus had come she went to meet him, Mary remained sitting in the house. Martha said to Jesus, ‘If you had been here, my brother would not have died, but I know that, even now, whatever you ask of God, he will grant you.’ ‘Your brother’ said Jesus to her ‘will rise again.’ Martha said, ‘I know he will rise again at the resurrection on the last day.’ Jesus said: ‘I am the resurrection and the life. If anyone believes in me, even though he dies he will live, and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?’ ‘Yes Lord,’ she said ‘I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who was to come into this world.’ Jesus said in great distress, with a sigh that came straight from the heart, ‘Where have you put him?’ They said ‘See how much he loved him!’ But there were some who remarked, ‘He opened the eyes of the blind man, could he not have prevented this man’s death?’ Still sighing, Jesus reached the tomb: it was a cave with a stone to close the opening. Jesus lifted up his eyes and said: ‘This sickness will end not in death but in God’s glory, and through it the Son of God will be glorified.’ Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus, yet when he heard that Lazarus was ill he stayed where he was for two more days before saying to the disciples, ‘Let us go to Judaea.’ On arriving, Jesus found that Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days already. Jesus said, ‘Take the stone away.’ Martha said to him ‘Lord by now he will smell; this is the fourth day.’ Jesus replied ‘Have I not told you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?’ So they took away the stone. Then Jesus lifted up his eyes and said: ‘Father, I thank you for hearing my prayer. I know indeed that you believed in him. This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

YEAR A Fifth Sunday in Lent

We all remember the story of Martha and Mary arguing about who should do the house work. Now these same women are mourning their brother and Jesus surprises them again. The story is long but a few lines stand out. “This sickness will not end in death but in God’s glory…” (Jesus) “If you had been her my brother would not have died” (Martha) “See how much He loved him” (the crowd) These all show that Jesus presence brings life not death and each saying deserves some time of reflection. The prayer of Jesus however stands out as a prayer we can all take on:

“Father, I thank you for hearing my prayer; I knew indeed that you always hear me. ...I speak for the sake of all these who stand round me”.

Jesus said his prayer to reinforce the faith of those around him, I say the same prayer to reinforce my own faith.
