Entrance Antiphon:
A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:
As the Father sent me, so I send you:
Receive the Holy Spirit.

In the evening of the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Pentecost Sunday Year A

Today the first reading is from The Acts of the Apostles it tells of Pentecost day and this is the story we know well of tongues of fire and wind and different languages. The Gospel is from John and tells a different story of Pentecost. In this story Jesus comes to the disciples and wishes them peace. He then breathes on them and says “receive the Holy Spirit” and since the apostles are to become the leaders of the church Jesus invites them to forgive the sins of others in the name of God. These two readings show us how this beautiful feast is a beginning for the church and beginning for priesthood. On Pentecost day the apostles began building the Kingdom here on earth. So today I wish you all HAPPY BIRTHDAY if we are filled with joy the Kingdom will grow.
