to you everything I have learnt from Father, Alleluia.

Responsorial Psalm:
The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel.

Gospel Acclamation:
Alleluia! Alleluia! I call you friends, says the Lord because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from Father, Alleluia.

Twenty Seventh Sunday In Ordinary Times

The first reading Psalm and Gospel today use the image of a vineyard. The Isaiah reading and the Psalm both speak of the owner expecting the vineyard to produce good fruit, it does not, so the owner acts in anger towards the vines he stops caring for them and allows them to be ruined. Jesus followers would have been familiar with this story so Jesus told a new story with a very blunt message; it is not the vines the owner is angry with but the tenants. The tenants live in the vineyard they have heard God’s message but fail to respond. Jesus has a dialogue with his listeners, they understand the story and they expect God to be vengeful. (how things have changed we expect a loving response from God) Jesus is saying that his listeners had a chance but didn’t respond and help the kingdom grow. We are reminded to use the gift of faith and not waste it.

Welcome Back Fr Xua
Hope you had a pleasant holiday with family and friends. Welcome back.

Former Parishioners
Where have all the oldies gone, long time passing???
Do you know any people who used to belong to Holy Child Parish or people who live in the parish and are house-bound, we would like to extend an invite to them to be part of the events during our Jubilee Year. We need your help!! Please give the names and addresses of former parishioners to the Office or list them in the folder provided at Holy Child and Holy Family Centre starting from 5th October. In this way, we can send out invitations and make our Jubilee celebrations meaningful for more people.

NO Rosters for Special Ministers/Readers until 2/3 week of October. Meanwhile volunteers for all Masses. Thank You.
