Enterance Antiphon:
All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy. Alleluia!

Responsorial Psalm:
Remember your mercies, O Lord. Lay Chúa, xin nhớ lại nghĩa nặng với ân sâu của Ngài.

Gospel Acclamation:
Alleluia! Alleluia! My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me. Alleluia.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew:
He went out moved by regret. The tax collectors and prostitutes will precede you into the kingdom of God.

Which one did his father's will?

The Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
Twenty Sixth Sunday In Ordinary Times

Jesus presents a family scene of two contrasting brothers one does what the father asks, the other makes promises but does nothing. Jesus seems to be pointing at the religious leaders who outwardly appear to say “yes” to God but don’t live up to their promises. In our second reading Saint Paul continues this theme saying Jesus did not exploit his equality with God but …became like a slave. (RSV translation)

If we really love God we will spend our time caring for others, almost like a slave but with the difference we do it from love not from fear.
