A reading from the holy Gospel according to John:

God sent his Son into the world that we might be saved through him. Jesus said to Nicodemus:

'The Son of Man must be lifted up as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him. Yes, God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that every one who believed in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son. On these grounds is sentence pronounced: that though the light has come into the world men have shown they prefer darkness to the light because their deeds were evil. And indeed, everybody who does wrong hates the light and avoids it, for fear his actions should be exposed; but the man who lives by the truth comes out into the light, so that it may be plainly seen that what he does is done in God.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Fourth Sunday Of Lent Year B

"Yes, God loved the world so much he gave us his only Son". These words from the Gospel remind us that just as we are, we are loved by God. We should look in the mirror each day and enjoy seeing such a wonderful person; a person loved by God. In the second reading from St Paul we see even more reason to enjoy being the person we are. "We are God's work of art, created in Christ Jesus".
