A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

The good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep. Jesus said:

'I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd is one who lays down his life for his sheep. The hired man, since he is not the shepherd and the sheep do not belong to him, abandons the sheep and runs away as soon as he sees a wolf coming, and then the wolf attacks and scatters the sheep; this is because he is only a hired man and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for my sheep. And there are other sheep I have that are not of this fold, and these I have to lead as well. They too will listen to my voice, and there will be only one flock and one shepherd. The Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me; I lay it down of my own free will, and as it is in my power to lay it down, so it is in my power to take it up again; and this is the command I have been given by my Father.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Fourth Sunday Year B Reflection

Today's Gospel presents Jesus as the "good shepherd" and the One who cares for his sheep. God demonstrates His love for each of us. Jesus, is the true shepherd who knows the name of each of his sheep. It's a two way relationship. The sheep recognise the shepherd's voice and respond. We too, know the voice of Jesus when He calls us. This kind of love resembles the kind of love the Father has for Jesus. It is this kind of love that binds us to the Father, to Jesus and to each other.

The word "good" means "noble" and not just simply "good at" something. Jesus is willing to lay down his life for his sheep. This relationship is the basis for the sacrifice that Jesus makes on behalf of us, his sheep. Today, we reflect on those who have given dedicated service to the Church and its people.
