A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark:

The Lord Jesus was taken into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God.

Jesus showed himself to the Eleven, and said to them, 'Go out to the whole world, proclaim the Good News to all creation. He who believes and is baptised will be saved; he who does not believe will be condemned. These are the signs that will be associated with believers: in my name they will cast out devils; they will have the gift of tongues; they will pick up snakes in their hands, and be unharmed should they drink deadly poison; they will lay their hands on the sick, who will recover.'

And so the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven: there at the right hand of God he took his place, while they, going out, preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the signs that accompanied it.

Ascension of Our Lord Year B Reflection

"Taken Up into Heaven" The Feast of the Ascension assures us that the risen Lord, who was taken up to heaven, is still very close to us. We are called to recognise the signs of His presence in the goodness, love and forgiveness of the community, in the healing of souls and bodies and in the great and small miracles of life.
