A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark:

They were as sheep without a shepherd.

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then He said to them, ‘You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while’; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as He stepped ashore He saw a large crowd; and He took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and He set himself to teach them at some length.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Times Reflection

HE TOOK PITY ON THEM. In today's Gospel Jesus

shows great care for His disciples. After a busy mission He takes them off to a quiet place to rest. He also takes pity on the crowds who follow Him. Recognising their spiritual hunger, He teaches them at some length. Jesus takes pity on us as well. Like the crowds and His disciples, we need to periodically step aside from our many chores and activities to be nourished by His life-giving word and fed by the Eucharist.
