

Entrance Antiphon

O God, come to my assistance; O Lord, make haste to help me! You are my rescuer, my help; O Lord, do not delay. Alleluia.

Responsorial Psalm:

The Lord gave them bread from heaven.
 Chúa đã ban cho họ được bánh bởi trời.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia! Alleluia! No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God. Alleluia

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst.

When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into boats and crossed to Capernaum to look for Jesus. When they found him on the other side, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered: 'I tell you most solemnly, you are not looking for me because you have seen the signs but because you had all the bread you wanted to eat. Do not work for food that cannot last, but work for food that endures to eternal life, the kind of food the Son of Man is offering you, for on him the Father, God himself, has set his seal.' Then they said to him, 'What must we do if we are to do the works that God wants?' Jesus gave them this answer, 'This is working for God: you must believe in the one he has sent.' So they said, 'What sign will you give to show us that we should believe in you? What work will you do? Our fathers had manna to eat in the desert; as scripture says: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'

Jesus answered: 'I tell you solemnly, it was not Moses who gave you bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the bread from heaven, the true bread; for the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' 'Sir,' they said 'give us that bread always.' Jesus answered: 'I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORD. TIMES REFLECTION

THE BREAD OF LIFE. The manna the Israelites discovered in the wilderness satisfied their hunger. More importantly, it was a sign that God was with them in their time of trial. It was a sign to them of the presence of God in Jesus. In the symbolic actions of the Eucharistic celebration, we also recognize the presence of Christ, the Bread of Life, among us. Jesus continues to invite us to recognize the treasures that God in His love is offering, which we often overlook or fail to appreciate. When we look at the situation of our own lives, or of our Church, and the world, perhaps our initial reaction is to do what the Israelites did: moan and grumble about our lot. The Lord's response is always to send us His blessings and His love, just as He showered down bread in answer to the Israelites' hunger. The challenge for us is to listen to the voice of those who, like Moses, call us to recognize the goodness of God, the freedom God brings us, the promised land to which God is leading us.
