A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:
Lord, whom shall we go to? You have the words of everlasting life.

After hearing his doctrine many of the followers of Jesus said, 'This is intolerable language. How could anyone accept it?' Jesus was aware that his followers were complaining about it and said, 'Does this upset you? What if you should see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before?'

'It is the spirit that gives life, the flesh has nothing to offer.

The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life.

'But there are some of you who do not believe.' For Jesus knew from the outset those who did not believe, and who it was that would betray him. He went on, 'This is why I told you that no one could come to me unless the Father allows him.' After this, many of his disciples left him and stopped going with him.

Then Jesus said to the Twelve, 'What about you, do you want to go away too?' Simon Peter answered, 'Lord, who shall we go to? You have the message of eternal life, and we believe; we know that you are the Holy One of God.'

21st SUNDAY IN ORD. TIMES REFLECTION

THE HOLY ONE OF GOD. It was very difficult for the Jewish people to accept Jesus' teaching that they must eat his flesh and drink his blood if they are to have life. The Twelve accepted his teaching, not because they understood it, but because they believed in Him. Having seen his signs they believed that He was the Holy One of God. So often the word "belief" can mean just accepting statements or doctrines as true, a mere matter of opinion. Yet, what today's Gospel tells us about belief is that it is about traveling along with Christ, following him no matter where, being committed to listening to his words and to acting upon them. May Christ heal our unbelief that we too may accept his saving words, even when we do not understand them fully.
