

Entrance Antiphon

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

Responsorial Psalm:

May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

Nguyện Chúa chúc-phúc cho chúng con hết mọi ngày trong đời sống chúng con.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia! Alleluia! If we love one another, God will live in us in perfect love. Alleluia

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark:

What God has joined together, no one must divide.
Some Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, 'Is it against the law for a man to divorce his wife?' They were testing him. He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' 'Moses allowed us' they said 'to draw up a writ of dismissal and so to divorce.' Then Jesus said to them, 'It was because you were so unteachable that he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female. This is why a man must leave father and mother, and the two become one body. They are no longer two, therefore, but one body. So then, what God has united, man must not divide.' Back in the house the disciples questioned him again about this, and he said to them. 'The man who divorces his wife and marries another is guilty of adultery against her. And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another she is guilty of adultery too.'
People were bringing little children to him, for him to touch them. The disciples turned them away, but when Jesus saw this he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. I tell you solemnly, anyone who does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.' Then he put his arms round them, laid his hands on them and gave them his blessing.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

27TH SUNDAY IN ORD. TIMES REFLECTION

ONE BODY. As we hear Jesus proclaim the basic oneness of husband and wife in marriage, a oneness with which no human agency, not even the law of Moses, can interfere, we rejoice in the many couples who have grown closer together through the ups and downs of their married life. We also have compassion for those who have experience the trauma and distress of a marriage break-up. May all find support and guidance within the Church community.

Perhaps we might spend a few quiet moments reflecting on how we as individuals and as a community, could better support the families of our parish. Likewise, we might ask ourselves whether we could be doing more to help those who are trying to rebuild their lives and families after their breakdown of their marriage.
