A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark:
Go and sell whatever you have and come follow me.

Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth.

Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them, 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.'

They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

RECENT DEATH:

28TH SUNDAY IN ORD. TIMES REFLECTION

WHO CAN BE SAVED? In Jesus' time people saw wealth and prosperity as signs of God's blessing. Today, we can still covet things. We can embrace the message of our consumerist society that happiness lies in having more. The wise person knows that the greatest richness of all is the saving love of God in Christ Jesus, and it is ours for free. If our primary attachments is to Jesus, we will not covet material goods but use them as necessary.

Let us remember that it is not the splendour of our buildings, nor the accuracy of our doctrines, that makes us powerful; it's our reliance on God's word and on each other, helping to build the kingdom out of our weakness and God's strength.

For nothing is impossible to God.
