The readings for the Fifth Sunday of Easter talk about newness. These new things are truly improved. They not only promise a better life, but actually cause a fuller life to happen. Yet, the process of bringing these new things about demands not our spending money, but our giving of ourselves, that in some ways costs us more, but will result in even newer and more improved life. It also focuses on the growth of the early Church and Jesus' command to love one another. These readings highlight the importance of faith, community, and the promise of a new heaven and earth. Spreading the Gospel: Acts 14:21-27 shows Paul and Barnabas spreading the good news.

Entrance Antiphon: O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders; in the sight of the nations, he has shown deliverance, alleluia."

Responsorial Psalm: I will praise your name for ever, my King and my God.

With the change to one collection during our masses, the finance committee have assessed the % breakup of the loose money collection between the church and house fund. Based on last month's history they have agreed on a breakdown of 60% to church and 40% to house moving forward.

A very successful fundraiser on election day by our sausage sizzlers, spring rollers, chicken wingers, jamettes, relishers, planters and crafters. Thanks to everyone for efforts on the day and to our purchasers. We made a profit of $1031.35.
