What a wonderful week of reading, creativity and imagination we have had at Holy Child! Our school was full of excitement as students embraced everything Book Week had to offer.

There were plenty of highlights throughout the week, from fabulous costumes and engaging activities to announcing our Premier's Reading Challenge winners and coming together for our special Curl up and read family afternoon.

A particular highlight was welcoming illustrator Craig Smith, who shared his creativity and inspired our students with his wonderful work.

A very big thank you to our Book Week team and student leaders for all the time, energy and enthusiasm they put into making Book Week 2026 such a memorable celebration of books and reading!
